Member Commitment

As a CSA member, I understand and agree to:

1. Shared Risk & Reward: I understand that joining a CSA means sharing in both the bounty and the risks (weather, pests, crop failure) of the farm. While the farmer will do their best to provide a plentiful harvest, there are no guarantees on the exact amount or variety of produce each week.
2. Pickup Responsibility: I agree to pick up my share during the scheduled pickup time or make alternate arrangements in advance if needed. Unclaimed shares will be donated to a local charity or redistributed.
3. Communication: I will stay informed by reading newsletters/emails from the farm, which may include important updates, recipes, and farm news.

Farm Commitment

As your farmer, I commit to:

1. Growing Practices: Using sustainable, ethical farming practices to provide fresh, high-quality produce throughout the season.
2. Soil, Hay, and Compost Testing: I will test the soil, compost, and any hay before I use it.
3. Variety & Quality: Providing a variety of fresh, seasonal produce in each share, with efforts made to include a balanced mix of vegetables.
4. Communication: Keeping members informed about farm happenings, crop updates, and any changes to the schedule.
